BUTTE CURRENT NOTES.

W. Ziegler of Granite is in Butte. C. F. Karns of Dillon is in the city. James A. Sharp of Idaho is in town. A. F. Whitcomb and J. E. Hamble are over from Helena.

Frank O'Donnell of Billings and M. W. Bacon of Livingston are in the city.

Miss Josie Coughlin of Helena and her friend, Miss Lizzie Burke of Butte, are visiting their many friends in Butte.

The long lost Charley Ross has turned up once more. He was arrested yesterday for insulting ladies on the street.

Ten bars of lullion, weighing 884 pounds, were forwarded by the Moulton company, via Great Northern express yesterday.

John Connors and James Ryan, two professional tramps and vagrants, were arrested yesterday for begging on the streets.

No arraignments were made in the police court yesterday as Judge McMurphy took a full holiday, which he spent at Helena.

The colored Masons of Butte had a banquet and hall at Caplice hall last night which was well attended and was enjoyed by all present.

Lida Colson, 11 years old, died yesterday at No. 222 South Wyoming street. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

James McGaylor, is locked up at the central station awaiting trial for stealing a dressed goose which he "lifted" in front of an East Park street store Saturday night.

At the regular meeting of Lincoln post, No. 2, G. A. R., this evening, there will be an installation of new members. All members are required to be present at 7:30 sharp.

It is said that Schwab Zimmerman, the well known Helena hotel man, has leased the Butte, the new Hamilton block in East Broadway and will open it as a first-class hotel as soon as the building is completed.

The women's relief corps will hold a regular session Tuesday, Jan. 3, at 7 p. m. There will be an early adjournment followed by the installation of the recently elected officers in Flukely hall. The Sons of Veterans and the Ladies Aid are invited to the installation.

The firemen are working hard to make a success of their entertainment which is to be given at the opera house next Monday evening. Nearly all of the best amateur talent of the city and also many professional people have volunteered their services for the occasion.

The wedding of William Bently and Lizzie Johnson, advertised to take place on the stage of the Comique last Sunday night, was duly celebrated according to promise and was witnessed by a large crowd. Judge Eddy performed the ceremony, which constituted his last official act as justice of the peace.

Frances and Marguerite, two of the Galena street girls, engaged in a regular go-as-you-please scrap and hair-pulling match yesterday afternoon. A couple of policemen hove in sight just as the fight was becoming real interesting to the crowd of loafers who had formed a ring around the women. Enough hair was pulled out to stuff a mattress with.

Two men named Vincent and McCauley, selected a secluded spot in East Broadway early yesterday morning and after divesting themselves of all superfluous clothing proceeded to settle a dispute in rough and tumble fashion. Before they could fairly warm up to their argument a couple of officers happened along that way and escorted them to the station.

Complexion Parlor—Mrs. Dettmer, the artist hair dresser, has removed to No. 10 West Park street. She is sole agent of the only "facial developer." It eradicates wrinkles, pimples, freckles and all blemishes of the skin, develops the face, neck and bust. To introduce this wonderful discovery, will sell at cost this week. Call early.

Remember the grand opening of the Smith Piano company, on Wednesday, Jan. 4. A handsome book of music will be given as a souvenir. Good music. Smith Piano Co., 68 West Park.

For Christmas pianos go to the Smith Piano company, 68 West Park.

THE GLORIES OF LIFE

Things That Tend Toward Man's Happiness in This World.

OBSERVANCE OF SABBATH

A Paper Read Before the Butte Ministerial Association—Need of Another Great Revolution.

BUTTE, Jan. 2.—At the meeting of the Butte Ministerial association to-day the principal business was arranging the programme for the week of prayer. The week's services began this evening in a well attended and fervent meeting at the Baptist church. Rev. G. D. Holmes was leader of the services. The programme for the balance of the week is as follows: Tuesday evening, Jan. 3, Congregational church, Rev. T. W. Alton, leader. Subject, "The Church Universal." Wednesday evening, Baptist church, Rev. G. Wood, leader. Subject, "Nations and Their Ruins." Thursday evening, Baptist church, Rev. E. P. Hopp, leader. Subject, "Foreign Missions." Friday evening, Baptist church, Rev. Charles Cushingberry, leader. Subject, "Home Missions."

An interesting paper on "Sabbath Observance" was read before the association by Rev. T. W. Alton, pastor of the South Idaho M. E. church. What profit is it if we keep all the laws but one? Shall we be punished for that one violation? If a man steal can he plead before the court that he never murdered anybody or never violated any other law on the statute books of the state? Such a plea would be the height of folly. He would be punished for his act. How much more sensible is it if a man violate the fourth commandment of God and shall plead that he has kept all the others? Even among our church people, there is a tendency to forget the sacredness of the command, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." We find them giving the morning to sleep and the afternoon to pleasure. Many seem to think they have better be in bed on that day, lest, arising, they should be guilty of some wrong. Others attend religious services in the morning and go out from the house of God to revelry and sport. It is a sin which ought to be denounced in no uncertain terms. In our city it is sometimes difficult to tell the Sabbath from any other day. Saloons and gambling dens are open, playing their nefarious business all the day long. Multitudes, not of church goers, but of pleasure seekers, are to be found abroad at all hours. Some other business houses are kept open and employees are compelled to work or lose their employment. Mines and smelters are in full blast and men, deprived of their Sabbath privileges, are made slaves. God is forgotten. The thunderings of Sinai are no longer heard. What care these men if God did sanctify the day and say "In it thou shalt do no work." Where God's laws are so recklessly set at naught what wonder is it that man's laws are of little force? Whenever God's commands are disobeyed you will find need for jails and penitentiaries and gallows to restrain men from lawlessness and to enforce the civil rules of action. But leaving out of the question all our obligations to the Lord, the Sabbath was made for man. It is for his physical good and for his intellectual good; man is so constituted that he needs the rest that can give. Not only is the one-seventh of time good for man, but science tells us it is required by beasts, and is better even for the machinery of man which he uses to aid in his wealth. When we violate any physical law we must suffer for it. Law is inexorable and punishment is sure. Thousands to-day are suffering the consequences of a violation of the law of the Sabbath. When we think of the vast business requiring numerous operatives, that is transacted every Sunday in our country, we are amazed that this can be called a Christian nation even by the most charitable. Postoffices are open to deliver mail to professed Christian people; trains are run to carry mail, and passengers, and freight; stores are open to supply tables and furnish clothing; saloons furnish the beverage of hell that makes drunkards of men, widows of women and orphans of children; and that also makes it necessary to employ on that day, policemen, marshals and sheriffs. Theaters with their extravagant scenes, that never represent real life, but a false and a false and a false impression, reap some of their richest harvests. We might mention many industries employing thousands of men and women and children which have no Sabbath. Slaves are made of our fellow creatures.

There ought to be another great abolition movement that would stir our government from center to circumference. Once the great movement was started and agitated and agitated until it resulted in the liberty of our colored brethren. Now let it be agitated once again until the shackles shall fall from the limbs of all our brethren white and black, and we can truly say that we are "the land of the free." To get money man will "grind the face of his brother." Great greed for gain makes Sabbath breaking such a common thing as it is. Some of the managers of the world's fair are to be stirred with a deep feeling of kindness for the working man and would for his benefit open that fair on the Sabbath day. But the feeling of philanthropy is not deep seated enough to prompt them to throw wide the gates and say to the laboring classes whom they love so much, "Come in and enjoy these sights to-day without money and without price." The working man loses a great deal when he allows the one day of rest taken from him. He should stand up for his rights. All who love him should assist him in so good a cause. Let all true followers of Jesus of Nazareth, all genuine philanthropists, all lovers of humanity cease to assist in any way any violation of the sacred Sabbath and much will be done toward bringing back the days wherein God's house and man is made better. May the Lord hasten the time when on the coming of the Sabbath all our homes will be made glad; all the tabernacles of the Lord filled with spiritual worshippers and all places of business and pleasure closed.

Observed the Day.

Business Offices Closed Yesterday—Making New Year Calls.

BUTTE, Jan. 2.—To-day was generally observed as the New Year holiday and as a rule business houses were closed. Some of them were closed only half the day. The city and county offices and the post-office observed the day for the most part.

There was a pretty lively time in making New Year's calls and while there were not so many places this year at which there were formal receptions, yet there were many ladies at each place and the receptions were in all cases elaborate. The receptions were at the residences of Mrs. Largey, Mrs. Connell and Mrs. Lynch.

All will be welcome at the opening of the Smith Piano company Wednesday, Jan. 4, 68 W. Park street. Don't fail to get their souvenir book of music, 36 pages.

Notice—All parties having goods in pawn at my office are requested to redeem same by Feb. 1 as I intend closing my office. Uncle Sam, 4 East Broadway.

JOHN DILLON.

The Noted Comedian Pleases a Butte Audience.

BUTTE, Jan. 2.—John Dillon, the eminent legitimate comedian, entertained a packed house at Maguire's to-night in his old and inimitable manner. The character of Benjamin Hascom, the model husband, with the concentrated wickedness of 21 years boiled up in him, gives the great comedian the best possible scope for his talents, which are as bright now as they were years ago. Mr. Dillon is supported by an unusually clever company of comedians, among them Ida May Blake as the girl who has never had a flirtation, Anna M. Quinn, familiarly known as the Ogge, W. J. Deming, who studies the world to great advantage, and May Noble, a young woman who is lucky enough to be a widow at nineteen. "The Model Husband" is very very funny and will be repeated Tuesday night and on Wednesday night.

Daughters of St. George.

BUTTE, Jan. 2.—A meeting of those interested in the project was held to-night at the Hilbernia hall, for the purpose of taking preliminary steps toward organizing a lodge of the Daughters of St. George. More than 50 names were subscribed to the application for a charter and it is expected that this number will be more than doubled at another meeting to be held two weeks from to-night, when the list will be closed. At present the only lodge of the order in the West is at Denver, from which an instituting officer will be sent to institute Harmony lodge, the name selected for the new lodge.

Jackson-Darrow.

BUTTE, Jan. 2.—Jacob H. Jackson and M. J. Darrow were united in marriage this evening at the bride's home, 416 West Fourth street, Rev. Geo. R. Darrow, father of the bride, officiating. Only a few friends of the contracting parties were present. Mr. Jackson is a well-known and respected business man of this city, and the bride a prominent popular lady of Butte. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson have a host of friends who extend congratulations.

Hooked the Handkerchiefs.

BUTTE, Jan. 2.—There was a curious theft last night at the home of Gans & Klein on Main street. There are a few small holes under one of the show windows and the thief by means of a stick got two dozen silk handkerchiefs out through the holes that were displayed in the window.

Hanson Resigns.

BUTTE, Jan. 2.—News from Helena is that Charles W. Hanson, secretary of the people's party state committee, has resigned. The resignation has been accepted and John Gabriel of Butte has been chosen secretary in his stead.

A book of music, vocal and instrumental, will be given as a souvenir at the opening of the Smith Piano company, on Wednesday, Jan. 4. Go and get one, 68 W. Park street.

If you wish to make sure of getting one of the coins struck in commemoration of the Columbian exposition write to the STANDARD enclosing $10 for a year's subscription in advance.

TIME FLIES.

The years fade away, we see what we might have been, and what we are. The friends of our youth vanish, some are across the sea, some across the Jordan, some in jail. Life is too brief for backward glances. On the first of the year the average man communes with himself. The victories and defeats of the past are forgotten in contemplation of the bright perspective of the future. Hope, the bright little songster of Paradise, sings to us, and we look forward to the accumulation of millions or the acquisition of a new summer girl.

The world has been seeking a nice, convenient, easy road to riches since the Paleozoic age and has not yet been able to get ahead of the precept, "He that is diligent in business shall stand before kings." You can't lassoe dollars. You must tempt them to you and catch them. To those who would begin to be wealthy, we offer reliable bargains in real estate for the next 30 days.

Now is the Time to Buy.

WANTED, to trade, lots for houses, or anything of value.

Lots on Utah street, worth $2,000 each. $1,000 will take one. Lots on Wyoming street, a snap at $1,500; $1,000 within the next 30 days.

NEW COUNTY ATTORNEY

The Board of Commissioners Wants to Name Wines' Assistant.

MADE A PRINTING CONTRACT

One of the Things That May Cause Unpleasantness—Applications Made by the Poor for Help.

BUTTE, Jan. 2.—The county commissioners met this morning and spent some time in discussing the appointment of an assistant county attorney. This little matter is liable to create some trouble between the board and Mr. Wines, the newly elected attorney. Mr. Wines holds that he has the right to name his assistant, but at least one of the commissioners differs with him and thinks the board should appoint the assistant without allowing Mr. Wines anything to say unless he should happen to agree with the commissioners. It happens, however, that Mr. Wines has already named Charles Mattison as his assistant, while Dan Yancey is favored by the chairman of the board. Mattison is a republican and Yancey a democrat, and the board is also democratic. The law on the subject was read to the board, which refers to the duty of the county attorney, and says: "No other attorney shall be employed or paid by the county for any services required to be performed by the county attorney unless such services were rendered to the county and the additional counsel employed by the advice and upon the recommendation of the county attorney," which would leave no doubt that Mr. Wines has the naming of his assistant. At all events it is settled that Campbell, the present acting assistant, must go. The appointment of some one will probably be made to-morrow.

Another act that is liable to create some disappointment was an order made by the commissioners regarding the Miner Publishing company the contract for doing the county printing during the next two years at the same terms at which the work was done last year, or 25 per cent. less than the legal rate. The commissioners thought that by awarding the contract for two years they would save the county 25 per cent. on the cost of printing.

A warrant for $20 was ordered drawn on the poor fund in favor of Harrietta Hartz of Burlington, a woman who has been bothering every county official for a year past with letters relating a great tale of woe. An order was made that the money fund remain as now in the hands of the county treasurer, and that he honor and pay orders on the fund given by any member of the board, but that no money shall be paid out of it on any order from other persons. The treasurer is requested to make a quarterly statement as to the condition of the fund. This order was made to simplify business, as heretofore all orders for payment out of the fund had first to go through the clerk's office.

The board meets again to-morrow.
